

MCU Enforcement Rules for English Proficiency Requirements

Approved at the Academic Affairs Committee Meeting on March 14, 2025

1. In accordance with the Ming Chuan University Undergraduate Graduation Requirement Implementation Measure, the Ming Chuan University Enforcement Rules for English Proficiency Requirements were established. With the purposes to improve students' employment competitiveness in the future, so that students can pass the English Proficiency before graduation, also to enhance the ability of students to pursue further study and seek for job employment.
2. Students of the undergraduate and Master's programs who were enrolled in the university starting from the Academic Year of 110 shall pass the English proficiency test after passing the standard of the "English proficiency test" stipulated in these rules.
3. Students of the undergraduate and Master's programs of our university should take at least one of the following English Proficiency Exams during the schooling period. The types and standards of the exams are as follows. (Click to check the standards) Students studying in the International College or the Applied English Department should acquire higher test scores than the minimum requirements. Specific requirements will be established in other regulations.
4. Should any undergraduate student be unable to meet any of the above requirements before entering their fourth year, they must take the course of English Proficiency Tests with zero credit for one semester, and will be considered as passing one of the above mentioned English proficiency requirements.
5. A student who meets the minimum requirements for an English Proficiency test should submit the original certificate or score report to the English Language Center for review. After completion of these procedures, the student will be verified as meeting the graduation requirements.
6. Students admitted before 2020-21 academic year follow the Ming Chuan University Enforcement Rules for English Proficiency Requirements passed on November 24, 2016.

7. Enforcement rules were announced and implement upon approval by the English Language Center Faculty Meeting, School Affairs Committee Meeting, Institute of General Education School Affairs Committee Meeting, Academic Affairs Committee Meeting, and University President. Any revision must follow the same procedures.